Investor tied to waste dumping

By John Millazzo

EDWARDSVILLE — One of the principal investors in a proposed 210-acre landfill and recycling operation near Horseshoe Lake was president of the SCA Services company accused of illegally dumping hazardous wastes at the 265-acre Milam Landfill from 1973 to 1976.

Kenneth S. Hartbarger was president of SCA Services of Illinois Inc. when that company reached an agreement with the Illinois Environmental Protection Agency in 1976 to close down a section of the landfill located across Cahokia Creek from the site of the proposed new landfill.

According to documents from the Illinois

Pollution Control Board, Hartbarger, who is promoting the new landfill and recycling facility in Nameoki Township, was identified as president of the SCA Services company in August 1978 when he signed stipulations for an IEPA enforcement settlement.

Those documents were obtained through the federal Freedom of Information Act. Hartbarger, an investor in Springfield-based Environmental Control Systems, the company proposing to develop the facility, last month arranged for a Madison County Board member to travel to a similar facility near Crestwood, a Chicago suburb, to view the operation.

The County Board will vote on whether to allow the new operation at the conclusion of a state-mandated hearing on the landfill site set to begin today.

Hartbarger, a former Granite City resident now residing in Missouri, could not be reached for comment at his home on Monday or Tuesday.

A spokesman for Environmental Control Systems Inc. in Springfield also said Monday that Hartbarger was not affiliated with the company, but later acknowledged Hartbarger is in fact an "associate" of the company.

In addition to the Milam landfill operation in St. Clair County, which drew IEPA scrutiny and sanctions, Hartbarger was the owner of land in Wilsonville in Macoupin County where the controversial Earthline Corp. landfill was opened.

Wilsonville Mayor James Mussatto said Monday that the landfill degenerated into a toxic waste dump filled with an estimated 80,000 drums of hazardous materials. The engineer for that landfill, Doug Andrews, is president of Environmental Control Systems. He also was unavailable for comment.

A court-ordered cleanup of the Wilsonville site cost $26.5 million and was won by residents in a 1982 class-action suit with the assistance of the U.S. attorney's office. Hartbarger and Andrews were defendants in that suit.

Company cites city cooperation Gateway to expand plant

By Andy Siering
Staff writer

GRANITE CITY — Ground was broken Tuesday afternoon on a 25,000-square-foot plant in Northgate Industrial Park.

The facility will serve as the new headquarters for Gateway Packaging Co. Inc., a five-year-old company that currently has its headquarters in a 6,500-square-foot former dairy building at 2165 Benton St.

Roger D. Miller, president of Gateway, said the new plant would cost about $2 million, with equipment, and should be completed by Jan. 1.

Korte Construction Co. is the general contractor for the Gateway project. Korte has built all the buildings in Northgate.

Illinois Power Co. is the developer of Northgate. Peter Millburg, a spokesman for IP, said, 67 acres of the 500-acre industrial park are now under development, with nine firms involved.

Miller said the Gateway company, which currently has 11 employees, would have about 30 in 18 months if all goes according to plans.

Part of those plans is a loan requested from the Illinois

Department of Commerce and Community Affairs. Miller said the loan would be used for purchasing some extra equipment to help his company garner a larger market share. The company manufactures paper, film and foil lidding for portion-control food service products and other packaging materials.

Gateway has received approval for a low-interest $150,000 loan from Madison County Community Development funds. It is the second such loan Miller has received. A loan taken out to start the company was repaid well ahead of schedule, according to R C Bush, executive vice president of the Tri-Cities Area Chamber of Commerce.

Miller said he had received attractive offers from other municipalities before deciding to stay in Granite City, including offers of free land. His decision to stay in the city was based on a couple of factors, he said.

Among those factors, said Miller, was the land-and-construction package that Korte Construction and Illinois Power were able to put together.

The loan from the county and interest shown by the city were also instrumental, Miller said.

BAC to change name

By Rick Arnold

BELLELEVILLE — Come November, Belleville Area College will have a new name.

But what that name is has yet to be determined.

The BAC board of trustees voted 6-0 Saturday at a retreat in Alton to get the name-changing process going. Board Chairman Larry Reinbeck and trustees Elizabeth Jenner, Robert Maxwell, Kay Bennett, Don Theobald and Janet McReynolds voted in favor of the move. Trustee Ted Farmer did not attend the retreat.

Reinbeck said the college could have a new name as early as November. At its Nov. 21 meeting, the board is set to hear a report from a special board committee formed to gather public input on choosing BAC's new name.

The committee will solicit input from students at BAC's three campuses in Belleville, Granite City and Red Bud, said Maxwell, the committee's chairman.

Reinbeck, who graduated from BAC in 1963, when the college held classes at Belleville West High School, said the college has simply outgrown its name.

"I graduated from Belleville Area College when it was truly Belleville Area College. ... A new name will be a better description of the area (2,100 square miles) that the college serves," Reinbeck said.

Madison, police reach accord; 12-hour shifts

MADISON — After several months of negotiations, city officials and officers of Unit 110 of the Police Benevolent and Protective Association recently signed a new labor agreement.

The contract, retroactive to April 1, runs to Dec. 31, 1991.

The major change from the previous contract calls for policemen to work 12-hour shifts. Alderman John Hamm, who served on the negotiating committee for the city, said the provision benefits both the policemen and the department.

The department will get improved coverage, Hamm said. "It gives the city two policemen on duty at all times, and sometimes three," he said.

Last year, the Granite City Police Department tried 12-hour shifts for a 60-day period, but the plan was dropped because Police Chief Don Knight said it stretched his policemen too thin. He said scheduling would prove impossible if there were a period of multiple vacations or an incident that required a large number of policemen for an extended period.

Under the new contract, the Madison policemen benefit by getting an extra 80 days off a year. They also got an extra paid holiday, on Dr. Martin Luther King Day.

The contract calls for a 3½ percent salary raise the first year and a 4 percent raise the second year. A probationary patrolman now makes $10.45 an hour, which will rise to $10.87 an hour in 1991.

THE ONE THAT ALMOST GOT AWAY: Tom McGowan of Granite City is still trying to figure out how his car accelerated and plunged into a water-filled shale pit in Edwardsville on the afternoon of Sept. 14. The car was retrieved from 35 feet of water last Friday by the Bubblemasters Underwater Recovery Team from Granite City and a tow truck. McGowan spent five years and $8,000 restoring the 1969 Mercury Cougar and will wait to see how extensive the damage is before deciding whether to buy the car back from his insurance company. McGowan and a friend escaped unharmed.

Volunteers carry on traditions

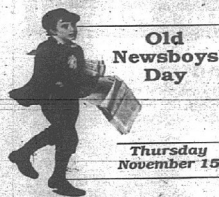

By Jean Abernathy
For the Journal

Tradition (tre-dish'en): n. Any time-honored set of practices.

Old Newsboys Day has been a tradition in the St. Louis area since 1957. Annually, 3,000 volunteers blanket 1,400 street corners in the metropolitan area to raise money for more than 200 local children's charities.

Many of the volunteers are Old Newsboys Day veterans, but each year the pool also is energized by new volunteers: individuals, families and groups who begin their own tradition by becoming Old Newsboys.

Those desiring to start such a tradition should send their name, address and telephone number to: Suburban Journals Old Newsboys Day, 1714 Deer Tracks Nearly $4.5 million has been raised by Old Newsboys Day volunteers the past 33 years. Every cent collected is distributed to children's agencies through the Old Newsboys Fund for Children.

New road commissioner selected

CHOUTEAU TOWNSHIP — A new highway commissioner, Bob G. Douglas, was selected by the Board of Trustees to replace Robert Morris.

Morris resigned Sept. 1. Douglas, who is the father of Pontoon Beach Village Trustee Bob L. Douglas, was approved by a vote of 3-1 to serve out Morris' term, which expires April 30, 1993. One trustee was absent.

Two names were put forth as nominees. Richard Mueller got one of the four votes cast.

Morris said his decision was strictly personal. "I'm getting close to retirement. I was holding two jobs and I thought I'd get rid of one at a time," he said. He is also a Somebody burglarized Borderline Auto Sales, 1200 Edwardsville Road, during the night of Sept. 20-21, making off with $6,000 worth of tools and a van.

Joe Marti, the owner, told police whoever did it took four sets of keys and twisted off the ignitions of four cars. A white 1979 two-door Ford Econoline van was stolen, along with three air wrenches and a complete set of metric wrenches.

Man faces burglary charges

COLLINSVILLE — A Granite City man has been charged with the burglary of two businesses.

James E. Meyer, 17, of the 2400 block of Glen Place was custodian in the Granite City school system. He is 38 now and plans to retire from the other job at the age of 60.

Morris said he is proud of the job he did as road commissioner, citing repairs made to several subdivision roads, using state and Community Development money.

Protection order cited

Joseph P. Becerra, 50, of the 1900 block of Third Street in East Madison was arrested for allegedly violating a court order of protection Sept. 19.

Stranger chokes student

Four students at Marshall School reported they were on their way to school Sept. 20 when a man sitting on a car in the 2800 or 2900 block of Buxton Avenue grabbed a boy, 7, and briefly choked him before running away. The students, 9, 9, 9, and 7, told police they had done nothing to antagonize the man. The boy was not injured.

charged Sept. 19 by the Madison County State's Attorney's Office with two counts of burglary.

The charges stem from the Sept. 9 burglaries at Ron's Automotive and B&K Auto Body, both at 301 W. Main St., Collinsville.

According to Collinsville Detective Robert Vecchetti, Meyer and a juvenile were stopped by the Pontoon Beach police department on Sept. 13 while riding motorcycles. The motorcycles — valued at $1,400 and $200 — were among items listed as stolen in the burglaries.

However, Vecchetti said Meyer was released before charges could be brought. As of Monday, Meyer was not in custody.

Meyer's bond is set at $40,000.

FBI working on case

MADISON — Two Arkansas men who were arrested Sept. 13 following a high-speed chase are currently in Madison County jail in Edwardsville on charges stemming from the chase, while the FBI tries to build a case against them.

Calvin P. Ellis, 34, and John W. Sapp, 17, both of Judsonia, Ark., were arrested that morning after leading several police agencies on a chase that began at the First National Bank in Madison. Police were summoned after the two men tried to convert nearly $10,000 in coins to currency at a drive-through window.

The FBI believes the coins were stolen, a police source said. Ellis pleaded guilty to a charge of aggravated fleeing to elude police and was sentenced to 60 days in jail by Associate Judge Robert Hennessey. Ellis also pleaded guilty to not wearing a seat belt and was fined $50.

Sapp pleaded innocent to charges of aggravated fleeing to elude police, reckless driving, speeding, not wearing a seat belt and not having a valid driver's license. He is being held on $20,000 bond.

If the men are charged with federal offenses, they must be brought to trial within 90 days, police said.

Man under drug influence when stabbed, jury told

EDWARDSVILLE — A 28-year-old Madison man found stabbed to death in his back yard the 700 block of East Madison Street in Madison Aug. 10 had a significantly high blood alcohol level and was under the influence of cocaine, according to information revealed at a Madison County coroner's inquest last week.

Deputy Coroner Roger Smith told a coroner's jury that pathologists' reports showed that Billy Ray Edmonds had a blood alcohol content of .314 percent. A person is considered legally drunk in Illinois with a blood alcohol content of .10. The report also said that Edmonds had traces of cocaine in his body.

The report indicated that Edmonds died of a single knife wound to the kidney.

Smith said that when Edmonds was discovered in the back yard of the residence shortly after 7 p.m. by a brother, Fred Edmonds, he was wearing only his shoes and pants.

There have been no arrests in the case.

Assessment protest hearings will delay tax cycle in county

By John Milazzo
Staff writer

EDWARDSVILLE — The three-member Madison County Board of Review is awash in a sea of property-tax-related protests.

And the backlog of paperwork is so dense it already has officials eyeing the need for petitioning the County Board for an extension of time to complete assessment hearings and records.

There also was an extension a year ago.

While a count of the total protests has not been completed, officials say the number is significantly higher than the 5,000 average in recent years.

Board of Review Chairman Shirley Voegelé said last week much of the workload has been generated in the northern portion of the county where a quadrennial reassessment was carried out earlier in the year.

In order for assessment protests to be reviewed by the board, they must have been filed by Sept. 10.

"I'll tell you; we are snowed," Voegelé said.

A county-set deadline of the end of the calendar year to hear the protests is fast approaching, she said, commenting, "Dec. 31 is already beginning to look too close to us."

Last year, for the first time in five years, the review board had to seek a 20-day extension from the County Board.

"We finished last time on Jan. 9," Voegelé said.

The protests must be heard so that assessed valuation can be finalized, tax rates can be extended and bills can be readied for mailing, the latter ideally by May 1.

Many of the complaints are coming from residents of Godfrey Township, where property was reassessed this year.

Alton, Foster, Port Russell, Moro, Omphigant and New Douglas also were reassessed. She said the county is divided into four quadrants, each reassessed every four years.

And, although the bulk of the assessment protests is coming from the portion of the county recently reassessed, there also have been many Edwardsville Township protests lodged, Voegelé said.

"Edwardsville was reassessed last year and it seems that a lot of people did not realize when in the process protests must be filed," Voegelé said.

However, much of the increasing workload for the office has arisen from taxpayers going to greater pains to understand how to protest and what deadlines must be met, she added.

People are just more knowledgeable these days about what their property is worth and they know about the system and how to use it," Voegelé said.

Dogs, people in Humane Society walk-athon

By Bob Slate
For the Journal

GRANITE CITY — Were it not for animal shelters, Sherry Harper probably wouldn't have her two dogs, Darbie and Keshia.

But, because they were saved from certain death, the animals have become an important part of her life. And the trio will pay thanks this Saturday, Sept. 29, by walking together in the Madison County Humane Society Walk-athon at the Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville campus.

Proceeds from the event will be placed in a fund earmarked for a new shelter for homeless animals.

Harper, from Granite City, said her dogs, Darbie, a pit bull mix, and Keshia, a shepherd mix, were both adopted through shelters, and both are former members of the Madison County Humane Society drill team.

"If not for the animal shelters, my dogs would have been destroyed. Their participation on the drill team proves that there are quality animals available for adoption through the Humane Society."

According to President Ledy Vankavage, the Humane Society currently rents nine cat cages and three dog pens from the county Animal Control shelter, a situation Vankavage portrayed as "very inadequate."

"Often, when an animal is brought in, it is not kept for more than a single day due to lack of space. There is no isolation room for animals with illness or disease," according to Vankavage.

"What people don't realize," she continued, "is that we get a lot of purebred dogs which are very adoptable," but we have to put them in with the strays and sick dogs because there is simply nowhere else to put them."

The Society's goal is to build its own facility, adjacent to the county pound, with an isolation room and "about 10 times the cage space," Vankavage said.

The walk-athon will have a three-mile course and a six-mile course. Registration will be held at 9:30 a.m., with the actual walk taking place from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Participants will receive visors and T-shirts from the event.

Another participant will be "Jughead," a celebrity of sorts in the East Alton area, who earned his name in classic fashion.

"Jughead" was seen June 2 wandering the streets in East Alton," according to Vankavage. "He eluded his potential captors, and was spotted several times in the course of the next three weeks."

Each time Jughead was seen, he managed to avoid capture. Eventually, sick with exhaustion and unable to see because of a jug stuck on his head, Jughead was caught and taken to the Humane Society, where Vankavage adopted him.

"About 50 dogs are destroyed each week," Vankavage said. "We would like to have a suitable facility so that these animals can be adopted and can live happy, productive lives."

Those wishing to participate can call Wendy Porter, Society vice president and walk-athon chairman, at 346-4803.

Persons wishing to sponsor a walker may call Sherry Harper at 797-2192.

Some offers too good to be true

By Jim Haverstick
Staff writer

Rudolf Klien, 44, of Fairview Heights was quite a salesman. But he wound up pleading guilty to eight theft charges in St. Clair County.

Court records show that Klien, owner of the Better Hearing Center of Illinois and Missouri, failed to deliver nearly $15,000 in hearing-aid devices he had sold to at least 10 elderly customers in St. Clair, Jersey and Monroe counties.

Over a period of four months, Klien apparently was selling hearing aids worth $600 to $1,000 to elderly customers for as much as $1,600, and then never delivering the devices.

For Klien's customers, everything worked out to their benefit, no thanks to the salesman.

He was ordered to pay restitution, and the company that supplied Klien with the hearing aids agreed to supply his victims with the devices they had ordered free of charge.

But scams like this one do not always end on such a happy note.

Of all consumer frauds perpetrated last year, 90 percent of the victims were age 60 or older, according to both the Illinois and Missouri attorney general's offices.

The story is usually the same. Someone promises an elderly person a service or product, claiming that they cannot live without it, at a special price, often well above the market value, said Jim Leach, public information officer for Illinois Attorney General Neil Hartigan.

The victims are contacted by phone, mail or in person; they are usually asked to sign a contract agreeing to pay now for something to be delivered later. But they don't get their money's worth, he said.

Once the business has a dozen or more victims, it closes down and moves to another city or state before victims catch on to the scam, Leach said.

"Home repair is one of the most common scams," said Lt. Dale Fredeking of the Fairview Heights Police Department.

"Things like driveway paving come to mind. Someone with a load of asphalt will promise to pave a driveway for an elderly person at half price, claiming that they just need to get rid of the load. They take the money and then promise to return later to work. Then they move on to someone else."

The list of items being fraudulently sold to older persons ranges from miracle medical cures to real estate that doesn't exist.

And people usually fall for the scam, losing hundreds, sometimes even thousands of dollars, Leach said.

"Beware of getting something for nothing. If it sounds too good to be true, it is," Fredeking said.

Both the Illinois and Missouri Attorney General offices publish a booklet on consumer fraud.

Following is a list of scams frequently perpetrated against senior citizens and ways to avoid becoming a victim:

•Bank examiner scam: A person claiming to be a bank examiner or an FBI agent asks you to withdraw your money and hand it over to them to help in an investigation.

Keep in mind that no financial institution or government agency uses customers to conduct internal investigations.

•Pigeon drop: Strangers approach you, saying they have found some money and want your advice on what to do with it.

They agree to split the money with you at a later time if you keep quiet about the find. But first they want "good faith money" from you so they can be sure you can be trusted with their money.

Do not trust anyone you don't know with your money.

No one who is going to give you money will ask for money in return.

•Car repairs: You take your car to a garage for a simple repair and the mechanic informs you that there are several things that need to be repaired immediately at an exorbitant price.

The mechanic advises that you have parts replaced and procedures performed that you have never heard of before. This scenario is common and often legitimate.

Do not be afraid to ask the mechanics questions about their diagnosis and don't be afraid to get a second opinion. Call the Better Business Bureau if you suspect the mechanic is being untruthful.

•Charitable solicitations: Almost every charity solicits donations. Most charities are honest and put donations to good use.

To avoid organizations that want your money for their own purposes instead of for a cause, don't be afraid to ask what specific purpose your donation will be used for.

If the solicitor cannot give you a direct answer, the charity may not be legitimate.

Avoid giving away cash or giving your credit card number out over the phone.

•Contest cons: A letter or phone call claims that you have won or can win a prize if you donate money or buy a product.

Chances of winning a fabulous prize are slim to zero. If you have to buy something or sign an agreement to win a prize, it is not legitimate.

•Funeral plans: Many funeral homes sell "pre-need" burial plans which are legitimate. However, there are sales people who sell cemetery plots that don't exist and funeral arrangements they cannot fulfill.

Read all agreements carefully. Look for a fixed-price agreement, not an adjustable-rate plan. You should not be charged more or less after you are dead for something you bought when you were alive.

Know exactly what is in the plan, who is responsible for fulfilling the agreement, and make sure that you see the cemetery plot before laying down money on it.

By law, funeral directors must supply written price lists for all merchandise and services they offer.

Ways to confuse burglars

EDWARDSVILLE — People who break into houses are looking for residences that are easy to break into, said Capt. Robert Hertz of the Madison County Sheriff's Department.

Here are a few suggestions on how to make your home less attractive to burglars:

•Leave a light on when you are going out.

•Leave a television or radio on so that noise can be heard outside if you are going to be gone for a day or more.

•Have outside lights such as front and back porch light, garage lights or driveway lighting attached to a timer so that they turn on when it gets dark.

•Make sure doors and windows are not concealed by trees. Hidden entries make it easier for burglars.

•Dead-bolts for doors and locks for windows are essential.

•Organize a neighborhood watch program and post "Watch Warning" signs on the street and similar decals on houses.

•Have a neighbor pick up your mail and newspapers if you are going out of town. When mail and newspapers pile up, it's obvious the house is vacant.

•Have burglar alarms installed.

Crime-watch groups active

Senior citizens are more susceptible to some crimes than other sectors of the population.

They are especially vulnerable to purse snatching, vandalism, mail theft, assault and battery, and obscene or harassing telephone calls because older people are not as likely to fight back, said Jim Leach, public information officer for the Illinois attorney general's office.

One way that older persons can help protect themselves from violent crimes is a neighborhood watch program, said officer Joe Girolamo, head of the neighborhood watch programs for the Collinsville Police Department.

Any police or sheriff's department can provide residents with information on the "watches."

About 10 to 15 neighbors need to establish a block captain, make a list of the participating neighbors and draw a neighborhood map. Each person is assigned to watch the house on either side of his house, across the street and behind his home.

"People don't need to spy on their neighbors, they only need to stay aware of unusual circumstances in the area, such as cars parked in the neighborhood that aren't normally there, or lights on at a house at a time when the occupants are not normally home," said Capt. Robert Hertz of the Madison County Sheriff's Department.

Neighbors are then supposed to report any strange activities to the police, he said.

"They make a perfectly clear from the beginning that we are not the ones to decide what a crime is; we are only supposed to report unusual activities to the police if we see anything," said William Shambro, block captain of a watch program near downtown Belleville.

Shambro was instrumental in starting the program when neighbors complained of cars speeding through the neighborhood and groups of teenagers harassing residents, he said. The watch started in March.

One problem with a watch program is it starts when there is a crime outbreak, but people lose interest when the problem is solved, Hertz said. But one of the program's advantages is that neighbors get to know each other better.

"Above and beyond the watch group, people are a lot friendlier now that we work together," said Eleanor Fohl, a member of Shambro's watch group.

"I've lived here 21 years and I never knew anyone on the next street over. Now I have friends over there. I'm kind of proud of that."

Board approves audit of college

By Rick Ajfild
Staff writer

BELLEVILLE — The Belleville Area College Board of Trustees has unanimously approved the audit of the college for the 1990 fiscal year.

"This is an excellent audit report," Larry Schmalenberger, BAC's vice president for administrative services, told board members at their meeting Wednesday night. "I'm pleased to say that he (the auditor) found our records in excellent order and said so."

The audit, which is done annually, was prepared by Robert Moore, a certified public accountant with the Belleville accounting firm of Voellinger, Moore and Renner, P.C.

In his cover opinion in the 68-page audit, Moore states that he found no inadequacies in the college's accounting procedures.

"In our opinion, the general purpose financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position and results of operations of BAC as of June 30, 1990, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles," Moore said.

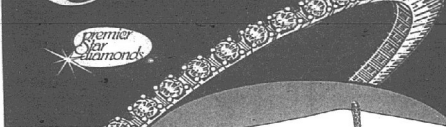

Major findings of the audit include the fact that BAC finished the 1990 fiscal year with a $1.4 million budget surplus and with a $4.2 million fund balance.

The fund balance has been a sore spot recently with board member Ted Farmer, who has said college officials should use money from the fund balance to pay for renovations at BAC's campuses in Belleville, Granite City and Red Bud.

However, Farmer's view has not been endorsed by the board.

New Illinois laws target drug crimes and assets

As he winds down the 1990 bill signing process, Gov. James R. Thompson has approved measures to attack the drug-abuse problem, protect the environment and help Illinois residents live longer.

Among the bills signed were the following:

•Drive-by Shootings (HB 4129). Creates the offense of aggravated discharge of a firearm, making it a Class 1 felony (four to 15 years in prison and/or a $10,000 fine) to shoot at or into a building or into an occupied vehicle which the offender knows is occupied.

•Smash and Grab (HB 4128). Creates the offense of vehicular invasion, making it a Class 1 felony (four to 15 years in prison and/or a $10,000 fine) to knowingly, by force and without justification, to enter or reach into an occupied vehicle to commit theft or felony.

•Crime Lab Fees (SB 2106). Provides that a person convicted, placed on probation, placed on supervision or adjudicated delinquent for certain drug-related offenses must pay a $50 fee to be deposited in a State Crime Laboratory Fund or a local crime laboratory fund. Allows the court to waive the fee when a person or minor provides a certified petition showing an inability to pay.

•Seizure and Forfeiture (HB 3610). Creates the Drug Asset Forfeiture Procedure Act which requires forfeiture of property which is attributable to or facilitates the manufacture, sale, transportation, distribution, possession or use of controlled substances.

•Mobile Phones (HB 4053). Requires school boards to prohibit student use or possession of cellular radio telecommunication devices on school property, and to by rule provide for appropriate discipline of violators. Also makes it a Class 2 felony with a fine up to $100,000 to use a cellular radio telecommunication device in the commission of drug trafficking.

•Interpreter for Hearing-Impaired (HB 2941). Creates the Interpreter Privilege Act and defines an "interpreter" as a person who aids a communication when at least one party has a hearing or speaking impairment or a language difficulty. Laws of confidentiality still apply even though the interpreter is present.

•AIDS Test Notice (HB 3908). Allows a doctor to notify the spouse of an AIDS test subject if the test results were confirmed positive and the doctor believes the test subject will not notify the spouse.

•Prisoner/Mothers (HB 3479).

Provides that the Department of Corrections may permit a child to stay in the custody of a mother committed to the department until the child is 6 years old (now, one year old).

Also allows the department to establish work-release and day-release programs for nonviolent pregnant female offenders and nonviolent female offenders and their children under age 6.

•Animal Research Facilities (SB 2038). Makes it illegal to impede, injure or harass any person at an animal facility and provides for different levels of penalties depending upon the amounts of property damage.

•School Employees (HB 1762). Repeals provisions which require school boards to file their collective bargaining agreements or written policies and salary schedules with their regional superintendent. Also protects a school employee who must appear in court on a school-related matter from loss of salary.

•Child Abuse Reporting (SB 1577). Requires the Department of Children and Family Services to provide to law enforcement personnel and the State's Attorney's Office a 24-hour oral notification followed by written confirmation within 48 hours of receipt of any child abuse report.

•Trap Definition (HB 4082). Makes it unlawful to use certain types of snare traps and expands meaning of "trap" by including cushion-hold and snare traps.

•Radiation Protection (HB 3506). Enacts the Radiation Protection Act of 1990 and provides for regulation by the Department of Nuclear Safety of the use of radiation in Illinois.

•Food Transportation Safety (HB 2896). Creates the Food Safety Transportation Act to prohibit the transportation of certain food items in vehicles used to transport other substances. Provides that a violation of the act is a business offense subject to a fine of not less than $1,000 nor more than $2,500.

•Mammographies (SB 1861). Provides that the Department of Public Aid must pay for mammograms for women who are at least 35 years of age and are eligible for medical assistance. Also provides that equipment for X-rays must include an "image receptor," rather than "screens and films."

•Tax-Exempt Savings Bonds (HB 4036). Provides that up to $2,000 annually, per account, in investment earnings from College Savings Programs will be exempt from Illinois income taxes.

•Anti-Apartheid Goal (HB 3333). Amends the Purchasing Act to prohibit any state agency from purchasing products made in South Africa or by South African corporations until apartheid is abolished.

•Hate Crimes (SB 2267). Protects individuals from crimes committed based on the victim's race, color, creed, ancestry, sexual orientation, disability or national origin. A first offense is a Class A misdemeanor (up to one year in jail and/or a $2,000 fine) and subsequent offenses will be Class 3 felonies (two to five years in jail and/or up to a $10,000 fine).

•Vehicle Emissions Inspections (SB 2150). Expands the Vehicle Emissions Inspection program to DuPage, Kane, Lake and Will counties and provides for inspections in the third, fifth and seventh years of a vehicle's life, then annually after that. Requires a tamper check for the presence of a catalytic converter. Rural areas of Lake, Kane and Will counties, as well as Postle Township in Madison County, are exempt from the testing.

•No-Frills Health Insurance (HB 3528). Creates the Small Employer Group Health Insurance Law. Provides that employers with 25 or fewer employees can provide group insurance without being required to offer various mandates. Employers who have provided health insurance during the preceding 12 months cannot provide coverage under the program. Coverage must include mammography for women age 35 or older.

•Electric Meter Tags (HB 3371). Requires every public utility company which provides electricity to tag electric meters at residences in which an individual is dependent on an electrically-operated respirator, dialysis machine or any other electrically-operated life support equipment.

Study says day-care system throughout nation needs major overhaul

By Jane Cosby

Working parents will not find any surprises in a newly released two-year study on child care in the United States.

The National Research Council, an arm of the National Academy of Sciences, assembled a panel of social scientists, doctors and educators to study the issues involved in child care.

The experts' first conclusion is that child care in the United States is inadequate to meet current and future demands.

They concluded that care is unavailable and unaffordable for many, and that much of what is available is of low quality.

One of the biggest concerns is that many are being cared for in unsafe, unhealthy and developmentally inappropriate situations. These low-quality child-care settings can be found among all types of services, non-profit as well as for-profit.

Finding child care is particularly difficult for parents of infants, children with disabilities, ill children, school-age children and those with non-traditional schedules, the panel said.

Developing a quality delivery system for child care will require major investments of new resources from both the public and private sectors, according to the study. There will be no cheap or easy solutions to the child care dilemma.

The panel recommended: •The federal government should mandate unpaid, job-protected leave for employed parents of infants up to 1 year of age.

•Establishing a strong relationship between the parents and the child during the first year of life has been shown to have significant implications for the child's later emotional development.

•The federal government should develop national standards for child care. State regulations vary widely and in some cases do not reflect the developmental needs of children.

•Government at all levels, employers and private-sector groups should expand referral services to help parents find high-quality child care; improve training and wages to raise the qualifications and stability of care-givers; expand vendor-voucher programs to subsidize child care for low-income families; and provide a system for organizing family day-care situations.

•The federal government should expand Head Start early-learning programs to serve all eligible low-income 3- and 4-year-olds who are at risk of early school failure.

Illinois, Missouri rank low in alcohol-related arrests

By Sarah Krantz
Correspondent

WASHINGTON — Missouri and Illinois rank near the lower half of the nation in alcohol-related arrests, according to the General Accounting Office.

The GAO released a report Sept. 20 comparing drug and alcohol abuse in rural and non-rural areas.

The agency found about as much substance abuse in rural areas as non-rural areas, despite the nation's usual focus on large cities, such as New York, Miami and Los Angeles.

Missouri ranked No. 37 and Illinois ranked No. 43, according to the report, which used FBI figures from 1988.

About nine of 1,000 arrests in Missouri were for alcohol abuse; about seven of every 1,000 arrests in Illinois were for alcohol abuse. Both states are primarily non-rural.

The report defined abuse as illegal use of alcohol, such as driving while intoxicated or driving under the influence, drinking alcohol under the legal age or committing a crime while under the influence of alcohol.

The 19 rural states were defined as having 50 or less people per square mile.

Missouri ranked No. 25 among the states in abuse of other drugs, but Illinois ranked higher, No. 13.

Tennessee ranked first in alcohol abuse with about 21 of every 1,000 arrests being alcohol-related. New Mexico was second with 20 of every 1,000; Virginia was third with 19 of every 1,000.

The report concluded: "Alcohol is by far the most widely abused drug in the 19 rural states."

"Some drugs, such as cocaine, appear to be less prevalent in rural than non-rural areas. Other drugs, such as inhalants, may be higher in rural areas than elsewhere. The report offered no reasons as to why."

"Total substance abuse (alcohol abuse plus other drug abuse) is about equal in rural areas and non-rural areas in all states."

The GAO conducted the study in response to a request by five Democratic senators from rural states: David Pryor and Dale Bumpers, both of Arkansas; Max Baucus of Montana; Thomas

'Blue Window' to be presented

The Arts League Players of Edwardsville will kick off their 10th anniversary season with Craig Lucas' comedy, Blue Window, at 8 p.m. Thursday-Saturday, Oct. 4-6, in the James P. Metcalf Theater on the campus of Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

The one-act play, a "human comedy," presents several big-city dwellers who are involved in the age-old quest for love and acceptance. Lucas, who currently has a Broadway hit with Prelude to a Kiss, has created a highly theatrical piece in Blue Window, with its interwoven dialogue and simultaneous action on stage.

After a decade of providing alternative theater to the Metro East region, the Arts League Players continue that tradition with a varied lineup of offerings for the 1990-91 season.

In addition to a brand-new season, the Arts League is also beginning a new curtain time policy. The curtain time will be 8 p.m. for all performances, 15 minutes earlier than in the past.

The remainder of the 1990-91 season is: Waterwings, Dec. 6-8; Tales of the Lost Formicans, Jan. 24-26 and Feb. 1-2; Awake and Sing!, March 28-30; and Comedy Tonight, an evening of one-act plays, May 30 and 31 and June 1.

Tickets for each performance are $5; senior citizens and students, $3.50.

Season tickets will be available through the run of Blue Window. Season tickets are $20; seniors and students, $15.

Free hot line on insurance launched in state

State Rep. Sam Wolf, D-Granite City, in conjunction with other legislators and the Illinois Information Service have announced the formation of the Illinois Insurance Hotline, a toll-free telephone service for consumers.

The Insurance Hotline is available free to every resident of Illinois with a question or a concern dealing with insurance.

"The kickoff this month of the hot line is especially timely in the wake of the Will County tornado," said Kenneth D. Towers, executive director of the Illinois Insurance Information Service.

"The insurance industry in Illinois moved in quickly to provide financial support and helpful information to the thousands affected by that tragedy," Towers said at a press briefing.

"The role of the line in the event of any future disasters would be to back up the total range of services supplied by the insurance industry.

"Primarily, the mission is to be there day after day to provide quick answers and expert information," Towers said.

The IIIS will operate the hot line.

It is a major organization made up of major Illinois insurance companies. These companies are funding the line at an annual cost of $250,000.

"This is the latest initiative undertaken by Illinois insurance firms to meet the needs of consumers," said David A. Bowers, chairman of the IIIS board of directors.

"Earlier this year we vigorously supported a series of pro-consumer bills enacted by the General Assembly which will expand consumer services and also help control the cost of auto premiums," said Bowers. "Now, with the launch of the Insurance Hotline, we can point to 1990 as a banner year for the insurance industry in Illinois."

The toll-free number is 1-800-444-3338. It is staffed by persons with many years of professional experience in all forms of insurance coverage — property, casualty, health, life, etc.

Hours for the phone line are 9 a.m. to 4 p.m., Monday through Friday. The service is bilingual, with the capability to deal with inquiries from those who speak Spanish.

The line is meant to supplement the basic services provided by insurance agents and insurance companies.

Insurance companies throughout the state are cooperating by designating a person to serve as a liaison with the line to solve problems and answer questions.

Tax refunds can go to child support

SPRINGFIELD — The Illinois Department of Public Aid has mailed 106,000 letters to people who owe past-due child support. The letters notify them that their state and federal income tax refunds for the 1990 tax year may be intercepted.

Each year, the Department of Public Aid compiles a list of all cases that meet the criteria for diverting state and federal income tax refunds to satisfy past child support obligations. If the intercept is not disputed, the responsible relative's name is forwarded to the Internal Revenue Service and state comptroller's office, which will intercept the refund check.

"Each year these enforcement programs have proven to be increasingly effective at helping Illinois families become or remain self-sufficient," said Department of Public Aid Director Kathleen Kustra. "This highly automated process assists the department in collecting the child support that Illinois children have a right to receive."

Each person has 30 days to protest the tax interception notices. If they submit sufficient documentation with their written request for redetermination, the department will remove their names from the list.

Sufficient documentation consists of payment ledgers or other documents showing that the outstanding child support has been paid.

After the 30-day protest period, the department submits a list to the federal and state governments, showing the amount of child support each person owes. People who feel the Public Aid Department mistakenly sent them the letter should promptly respond to these initial notices, which provide the opportunity to correct the record before tax season starts, she said.

If a mistake has been made, the department will remove the name from the list. People with questions about their notices may send a letter and documentation.

They should be addressed to the Illinois Department of Public Aid, Division of Child Support Enforcement, Prescott Bloom Building, P.O. Box 19405, Springfield, IL 62794-9405.

Lack of child support is the number one reason why almost half a million children in Illinois receive public assistance, Kustra said.

The department collected more than $20 million in tax year 1989 by diverting federal and state income tax refund checks of persons owing child support.

That was more than 13 percent of the total of $148 million collected in child support for fiscal 1990.

For cases involving Aid to Families with Dependent Children (AFDC) or foster care, the unpaid amount of child support must not be less than $150 and the delinquency must be at least three months in order for taxes to be intercepted.

The display generally is short-lived, Bowden said.

"It builds up for one week, peaks, and then drops off," he said.

Bowden has just one warning: If your autumn hobby is collecting brilliantly colored leaves:

"Poison ivy turns a beautiful red."

Brilliant fall foliage likely

By Michael Pearson
Staff writer

A spectacular summer growing season should culminate in two to three weeks with a dazzling display of horticultural color, says a local plant expert.

"It should be gorgeous," said Missouri Botanical Garden horticultural director Robert Bowden. "Keep in mind we've had an excellent growing year."

The mild, wet spring and summer allowed some trees to put on too many leaves. That's why a number of leaves are already on the ground, he said.

And, provided Mother Nature keeps up with sunny days, cool nights and little rain, the remaining leaves should brighten up the St. Louis metropolitan area sometime in October.

When the weather turns cool in the Northern Hemisphere, leaves begin to burst into red and yellow combinations, Bowden said.

"Botanists haven't completely figured out what makes fall so beautiful. The autumn color is physiologically a reaction that's very complex," Bowden said. "The exact cause isn't fully understood."

But it has to do with a declining level of life-giving chlorophyll and an increased sugar output, he explained.

Warm nights and cloudy days tend to alter chemical reactions inside trees enough to make things dull, colorwise, he said.

Among the plant species to watch for: maples, sweetgum, blackgum, sassafras, ginkgo, birches, larches (a deciduous evergreen), most varieties of oak, bittersweet and Boston ivy vines.

Here's Johnny! Locals cheer Van Buskirk as IU beats Billikens, 2-1

By Dave Whaley
Executive sports editor

ST. LOUIS — Although the St. Louis University soccer team was playing its second game at the brand-new Billiken Sports Complex, the biggest pre-game cheer Sunday night was for a visiting player.

John Van Buskirk had returned home. Well, he wasn't quite back in Granite City, but it must have felt like it when more than 100 Granite City fans cheered at the introduction of Van Buskirk, a freshman starter for Indiana University.

The Hoosiers, ranked 12th in the nation, defeated the eighth-ranked Billikens 2-1 to improve their record to 5-2-1. Indiana has won five straight and is unbeaten in six games since losing its first two games to UCLA and UNLV. And Van Buskirk has been a factor.

The 1990 Granite City High School graduate, who was a high school All-American while lead-

"If Gene (Baker) has any more players like John, we'll take them."

— Jerry Yeagley, IU soccer coach ing the Warriors to the 1989 state title, is the only freshman starter for the Hoosiers, who got two goals from senior Ken Snow to beat the Billikens.

"For a freshman, John has far exceeded our expectations," said Indiana coach Jerry Yeagley.

"He is very coachable and a team player all the way. Some players aren't ready physically at this stage, but John is and he remains composed under pressure."

Van Buskirk has been an attacker from both the midfield and forward positions. He has two goals, not including the only goal in a 1-0 win over Notre Dame in an exhibition match Aug. 25 — his first college game.

"I'm having a blast," said Van Buskirk after playing all 90 minutes Sunday. "We've got a good team. Snow is great, and (Chad) Deering is pretty smooth, isn't he?"

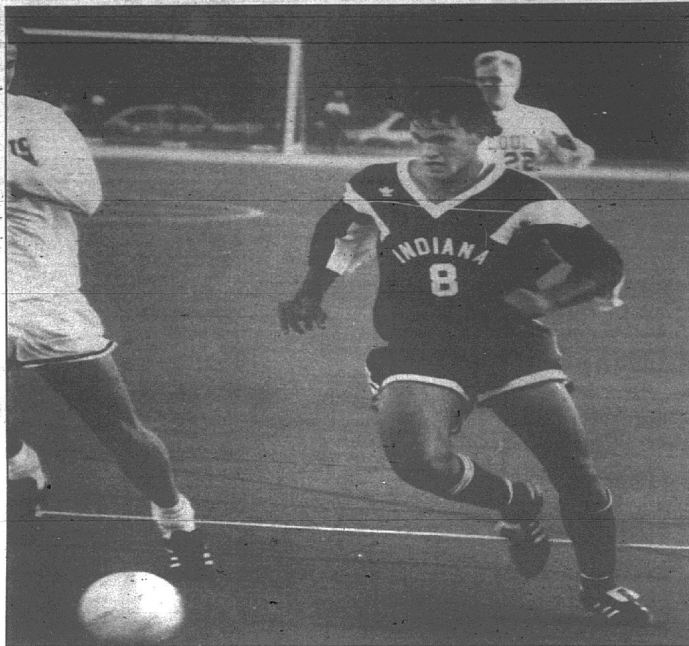

Deering is a sophomore midfielder from Plano, Tex., and was All-American as a freshman. Snow is a three-time college All-American from Schaumburg, Ill., and has scored more than 80 goals in his college career.

"I guess the biggest adjustment I've had to make is playing man-to-man defense," said Van Buskirk. "We played a lot more zone stuff in high school. But I think I'm picking up everything pretty well."

Yeagley couldn't agree more. "John has a feel for the game," he said. "One thing he might need to improve on is his vision of the whole width of the field in the final third. But he sees things close by real well and can hold the ball and draw defenders to him."

Van Buskirk was aware of the large contingent of fans he had for the game.

QUINCY — The Notre Dame Raiders came into Saturday's game with the Warrior soccer team trying to get back on track after a disappointing loss to Belleville Althoff. They picked the wrong team.

Granite City (7-2) scored five goals in the first half for the second straight game en route to a 6-1 win over Notre Dame (6-3-2) at Flinn Stadium.

"We just played an awesome first half," said Warrior coach Gene Baker. "It was as good a half as we've had in years. The first goal we scored was probably our best of the season. We just played well as a team."

The first goal came on a spectacular play by senior Robertson at 2:09. Dan Terrell threw the ball in from the right touch line. Skip Birdsong flicked the ball out of the air to Robertson, who — with his back to the goal — hit a bicycle kick that found the top of the net over goalie Tom Poepping.

That began an avalanche of Warrior goals as Birdsong led the way with a goal and two assists, giving him a team-leading 13 points (five goals and three assists) for the season. Larry Wright and Brian Buske each had a goal and an assist.

At 12:39, Ryan Reeves came up from his fullback position and took a cross for a one-time blast into the lower left corner. The Raiders had one chance at 16:20 when Mike Kurk collected a loose ball of a restart. Warrior.

Harriers get 6th after false start

By Brian Henry
Correspondent

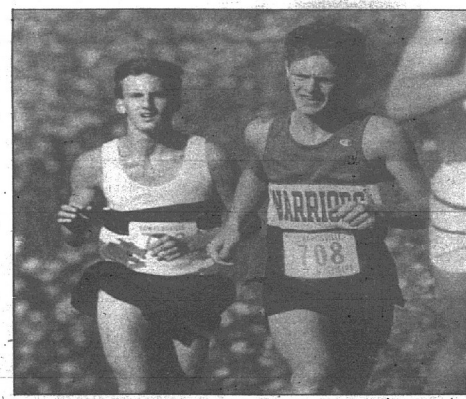

SPRINGFIELD — The Warrior cross country team had a taste of the talent it will face come sectional time Saturday. A rare false start gave a bitter pill to swallow as Granite City recorded its lowest finish of the year, tying Centralia for sixth place in the 20-team Springfield Invitational.

Granite City and Centralia both tallied 24 points while Decatur MacArthur proved it will be a threat in the post-season by nipping East St. Louis Lincoln 82-84 for the boys team title.

The false start was the greatest intangible as mass confusion disrupted the boys race. After the gun was fired, a false start was declared by the judge, who tried to stop the runners to no avail. Normally a second blank is fired to stop the runners, but an oversight left only one blank in the gun.

A majority of the runners stopped in the first 100 yards, but those who were ahead at the time didn't realize the mistake and misinterpreted fans' attempts to stop them. It was decided to let those who had already taken off run the course.

Oakville can't unseat Vianney at top

By Jim Woodcock
Staff writer

The Oakville Tigers scored 11 goals last week, lough Vianney to a 1-1 tie in the championship match of the Bob Guelker-CYC Tournament and took home the title by outscoring the Golden Griffins in overtime penalty kicks.

None of it was enough, however, to unseat Vianney as the area's top soccer team as voted on by the Suburban Journals panel coaches.

Oakville, which is one of only two undefeated teams left in the St. Louis area, did gain three spots to finish No. 2 in the voting with 122 points. Oakville (8-0-2) received seven first-place votes (worth 10 points each), one more than Vianney.

However, the Golden Griffins finished with 131 points by being chosen no lower than third by any of the 15 coaches who voted.

Oakville and Vianney each posted shutouts last Friday in the semifinals of the tournament's elite Blue Division. Two goals by Jeff Yenzler helped the Golden Griffins defeat Hazelwood Central 2-0, and Derek Phillips' two-goal effort led Oakville past Collinsville 4-0.

In Saturday's championship match, Oakville's Lance Hertlein and Vianney's Matt Pelt swapped goals in regulation, tying the game 1-1. In overtime, forcing the series of penalty kicks. Doug Fox of Oakville

St. Thomas Aquinas-Mercy and Eureka, the area's other undefeated team at 6-0-1, held their No. 7 and No. 9 spots, respectively, from last week.

Hazelwood Central replaces No. 8 Parkway West this week while St. Mary's, a 2-0 winner Saturday over Hitenour in the CYC White Division, reached the top 10 for the first time this season.

St. Mary's claimed the final spot thanks to two goals Saturday by Phetophone Senthimach and the shutout by goaltender John Sokolich. St. Mary's replaces 9-2-0 Bethalto Civic Memorial, which suffered its first losses of the season in the tourney's Blue Division.

Markert has Dupo on right track

By Mike Kelly
Staff writer

Dupo's Josh Markert is making life tough on opposing defenses.

The Dupo Tigers' senior quarterback has established himself as one of the best small school quarterbacks in the area during the first half of the season. Like a magician, Markert always seems to call the right play to break a game open.

Last week's performance against Carlyle was a terrific example of how Markert can easily dominate a game. He connected on six of seven passes for 116 yards, rushed for 91 yards on seven carries, scored a touchdown, threw two touchdowns and ran in a conversion as the Tigers, ranked second in the state in Class 2A, celebrated Homecoming by beating the visiting Indians 34-8 on Friday.

For his efforts, Markert has been selected as East Side Publications' Journal Athlete of the Week.

When it's time to talk about his accomplishments, Markert is quick to point out the support of his teammates.

"Most of the people on this team have been playing football together since we were little," said Markert. "So we actually know what the other guy is going to do in certain situations. It makes things easier when executing our plays."

"But we came into the season with the goal of having a successful season. This team wasn't expected to do much last year, but we almost reached the state finals. This year, we're taking things in stride. There's still a long way to go and a lot of games to play."

With Markert at the controls, reaching the state finals may not be out of the question. Other candidates receiving votes for athlete of the week were: Running back Mario Lockett of Cahokia, who scored three touchdowns and rushed for 143 yards in a 27-14 win over Roxana; the Comanches' Maurice Hickman, who had 103 yards rushing and a touchdown; and tight end/placemaker Mike Nordstrom of Granite City, who scored the go-ahead touchdown — on a 61-yard reception — against Collinsville, while booting three extra points.

(Each week one varsity athlete from Granite City, Madison, Venice, Cahokia, Dupo, East St. Louis or Lincoln high school will be selected by the Journal sports staff as the East Side Publications Athlete of the Week. Selected athletes will become eligible to be selected as the Journal-KSHE Athlete of the Month.)

Althoff maintains top spot in showdown

By Matt Welborn
Staff writer

The "Crusade" turned out to be a charade.

In the anticipated battle of Crusaders from Illinois and Missouri, Belleville Althoff reaffirmed its claim as No. 1 in the state by thrashing last week's No. 2, Lutheran North.

As a result, Althoff became the first unanimous No. 1 pick in either poll this season by gaining all 10 first-place votes cast. Lutheran South with No. 4, while Union, which has been climbing steadily in the polls, took over the No. 2 spot following a 35-0 win over Hermann.

Summer and Mascoutah both held onto their previous rankings following weekend victories. Sumner, 9-0 over Roosevelt, and Mascoutah, 14-0 over Jerseyville. Dupo climbed three notches after defeating Carlyle, 34-8. Priory, a 15-0 winner over John Burroughs, and Clayton, a 38-7 victor over Brentwood both made their first 1990 appearances in the Top 10.

In the large school poll, East St. Louis and Hazelwood East both won handily — East St. Louis 39-13 over Belleville West and Hazelwood East 60-13 over Hazelwood West — to retain the

and ran a second heat consisting of the runners left behind.
The weird chain of events was especially detrimental to the Warriors as pacemakers Lance Reynolds and Justing Stallings ran what turned out to be the first heat, breaking any continuity Granite City might have had. Reynolds finished 13th with a time of 16:35 on the three-mile course. Stallings clocked in at 17:00 for 30th, but not without some disbelief.
"I thought I was in the Twilight Zone," Stallings said. "I saw other guys cheering us on and I couldn't figure out what was happening. I thought we got disqualified."
Lincoln and MacArthur capitalized in a big way. All seven Tigers ran in the first heat and had four finish in the top 16, including Maurice Dotson, who took second overall.

"The beginning was ridiculous, but it paid off in the end," said Lincoln girls coach Nino Fennoy. MacArthur had six of the top eight runners in the second heat, although Shannon Kraus was the "Generals' top overall finisher (ninth). Eric Hanson of Springfield Sacred Heart-Griffin won the boys race in 15:46.
Warrior coach Dave McClain didn't pin the blame on the false start for his team's performance.
"I thought we looked tired today," he said. "Justin has been sick and Brian Reed hasn't felt well, either. We may have let down a bit mentally. They just weren't ready to run today."

Pekin won the girls race with 92 points, while East St. Louis Lincoln was third with 135 points. MacArthur took second with 114 points. It was the first meet all year that Lincoln didn't win either the boys or girls race.
"We still have a way to go before we're ready for sectionals," said Fennoy. "Our stronger runners are running well, but our 4-5-6 runners have to work on keeping the pace and staying with the pack."
NOTES: Lincoln did win the freshman-sophomore division with 74 points and Granite City was last in that division with 280 points. Jennifer Winfield was 6th in the girls race for the Warriors.

"I knew they were coming," he said. "It was nice of coach (Gene) Baker to bring them all over. I heard them cheering before the game and it felt nice."
"That was really neat," said Yeagley. "It just shows the quality and the interest that Granite has in his program. And I don't think it made John nervous. It probably got him pumped up. He played as well as anybody against a real good team. If Gene has any more players like John, we'll take them."
Baker brought the entire Warrior soccer team to the game, and a good many other, local fans made the trip to the new Astroturf field, located on Laclede Avenue just east of Grand in downtown St. Louis. There were just over 2,500 fans on hand for the game.

Van Buskirk had the game's first good scoring chance. He moved in on the left wing, but Billiken goalie Kevin Johnston came out and smothered his shot from close range.
"I didn't see him in time," Van Buskirk said. "I should have been able to flip it over him."
Van Buskirk was able to visit with his parents, John and Debbie, as well as brother Billy after the game. He came over to his house on the weekend, but the entire Hoosier team stayed at the Marriott in downtown St. Louis before riding home on their bus Sunday night.

"They've got a couple of TVs in the bus, so that's not too bad," said John's father.
NOTES: Indiana plays Notre Dame and Michigan State this week. The Hoosiers have never lost to a fellow Big Ten team, a streak covering 61 games. Mark Santel of CBC High School scored the Billikens' only goal on a penalty kick early in the second half for a temporary 1-1 tie. Senior goalie Juergen Sommer was outstanding for the Hoosiers.

goalie Tim Henson came off the line and Kurk's shot eluded him but just curled outside the left post.

Granite City needed only 27 seconds of the second quarter to make it 3-0. Wright took a give-away from Buske and lifted a shot that bounced off the crossbar and in. Birdsong made it 4-0, taking a low cross from Wright and banking one in off the left post. Buske capped off the first-half barrage when he took a perfect pass from Birdsong and hammered a shot past a helpless Peopling.

"They were just on in the first half and we were off," said Raider coach Mark Longo. "They came out real aggressive. We got our butts whipped."
Notre Dame got its only goal at 44:36 when K.J. Whitaker picked up an errant pass in the Warrior backfield and sent a cross from the end line that found Rob Gramke, who headed the ball past Brad O'Neill.

Terrell wrapped up the scoring as he gathered a ball 35 yards out and headed it past Bruce Bonness. As he moved into the area, Terrell placed a perfect shot into the right corner.
"We tried to spread out our offense in the second half and look for some openings," said Baker. "Our guys showed a lot of maturity. This ended up being a first-class trip."

Longo was at least pleased his team played with the Warriors in the second half.
"If we could learn to anticipate the way Granite City does we would do very well," he said. "It seemed like they knew what we were doing before we did."

Some help for under 60

By Bill Hunot
Social Security Administration

Q. I never worked before my husband died several years ago. Since he died I received Social Security for taking care of our children. When our youngest child turned 16, I stopped receiving Social Security.

I worked for two years after that but I am not able to work anymore. I am under 60 years old so I am too young to get widow's benefits. Is there any way I can get some help?

A. Social Security has two programs that might help you. If you are over 50 you should apply for disabled widow's benefits.

To qualify, you have to be disabled within seven years of your husband's death or, if later, within seven years after your benefits for taking care of his surviving children stopped.

Otherwise, you have to wait until age 60 to get widow's benefits.

Supplemental Security Income (SSI) is another program that might help. If you don't have much income or assets you might qualify for SSI assistance for disabled people.

Since you haven't worked much outside the home you won't qualify for Social Security benefits for disabled workers. Call 800-234-5772 to find out more about SSI and benefits for disabled widows.

Q. What is the difference between a reconsideration of a claim and a hearing?

A. A reconsideration is the first appeal if you disagree with a decision made on your Social Security claim.

In reconsiderations the evidence in your case is re-examined by someone who was not involved in making the first decision. Usually the reconsideration decision is made without any face-to-face discussion between you and the decision maker.

In a few cases the reconsideration is decided after you have a conference with a Social Security representative or an officer from the Disability Determination Unit.

No Reason To Cry Summer Onions Are Sweet To The Taste

By Janice Denham
Journal Food Editor

Watery eyes and tangy breath may be byproducts of fresh onions, but the intriguing history of onions is that of a delicious, disease-preventing, health-giving food. Pere Marquette was one who would agree. When he journeyed from Green Bay to the southern shore of Lake Michigan in 1624, he was saved from starvation by eating the only food available—wild onions, nodding onions and tree onions.

It is no surprise that Chicago has become a powerful city. The name is a translation of an American Indian word that describes the strong and powerful odor of onions.

Onions bear a wide range of flavor—from the wild variety, pungent and identifiable in the backyard, to the sweet aroma and taste of jumbo orbs available in different varieties all year long. Here are some summer ideas for using those eating onions that are so big to the eye and sweet to the taste.

Sweet onions usually are 4 to 6 inches in diameter. Many people recognize friendly red onions from salads. They look like they are ringed in purple. There are many other ways to enjoy the vegetable, too.

Marvin Werner of United Produce says the Italian red onions from California are plentiful through the summer months. The Walla Wallas are just beginning to arrive from Washington. This time of year, he recommends onions from southern locales as sweeter than those from northern states.

Frank Fronckiewicz, vice president of produce operations at National Super Markets, says the season's passing of fresh Vidalia onions does not leave a void. Spanish onions are here from Mexico and next month shoppers will find new yellow jumbo varieties arriving from Oregon. If Vidalias are still your favorite, put that yearning on hold until Thanksgiving when some are shipped out of storage.

Just be aware that it probably is easier to get sweet onions at your own market than straight from the field if you are visiting the state of Washington. A story is told there about a Midwestern couple who wanted to fly home with 30 pounds of onions. They wrapped them individually in aluminum foil to fit in their suitcases and contain the aroma. The result was a very noisy passage through a metal detector at the airport. They had to unwrap every onion to satisfy inspectors that the onions were the only strong arms in their luggage.

Fun and food of fans form friendly football companions

When evenings turn cool and crisp, it is a signal of a change greater than summer to autumn. It's football season!

Whether the favorite team plays at a high school, on a college field or in a gigantic stadium, football fans will gather there, which means plenty of food and fun. Whether refueling after a rousing game of touch football, or feeding a house filled with armchair quarterbacks, quick snacks that are easy to serve and eat are in order.

There are snack choices to be made that are not fat and salt-laden, so kick off the season with delicious and healthful snack alternatives.

Lip smackin' good, Hot 'n' Sassy Buffalo 'Wings' are actually not wings at all, but strips of naturally lean chicken breast, coated with seasoned ground oats, then broiled instead of deep-fried. Their golden brown color comes from paprika in the coating.

Spraying the chicken strips with nonstick cooking spray before broiling crisps the coating and keeps the chicken tender and juicy. Serve with a tangy combination of plain yogurt and reduced-calorie blue cheese dressing.

Sports fans will love the taste of zesty romano cheese in Pepper Cheesestix, a delicious cross between a biscuit and a breadstick. Oats add a hearty texture and whole grain flavor to this quick mix-and-pat buttermilk dough. Make plenty of "stix" ahead, then reheat as needed during the game, or serve them at room temperature.

Anyone with a favorite recipe — snack, main dish, bread or dessert that has been made over at home to make it more healthful may enter it in the Quaker Oats It's the Right Thing to Do Recipe Contest. Entries must be postmarked by Nov. 30. Forty-four prizes, including a $10,000 grand prize, will be awarded. For complete contest rules, send a self-addressed, stamped envelope to: Quaker Contest Rules, P.O. Box 1370, Barrington, Ill. 60011.

Hot 'n sassy buffalo 'wings'

- 1 1/2 cups uncooked oats
2 tsp. paprika
1 tsp. salt, if desired

Nonstick cooking spray
1/2 cup plain low-fat yogurt
1/2 cup reduced-calorie blue cheese or ranch dressing

Blend oats, paprika, garlic and salt in blender or food processor about 1 minute. Place in shallow dish.

In another dish, beat egg whites and pepper sauce. Lightly coat chicken strips with oat mixture. Shake off excess. Dip into egg mixture, then again with oat mixture.

Place on rack of broiler pan. Spray evenly with cooking spray to coat completely, about 20 seconds. Broil about 4 inches from heat 3 minutes. Remove completely from oven. Turn over.

Pepper cheesestix

- 1 cup uncooked oats
1 cup flour
1/2 cup grated romano or parmesan cheese
1 tsp. baking powder
1/2 to 1 tsp. coarsely ground pepper

2 tbsp. chopped fresh or 2 tsp. freeze-dried chives, if desired
3 tbsp. margarine
1 cup buttermilk
1 egg white, beaten

Combine oats, flour, cheese, baking powder, pepper, baking soda and chives. Mix well. Cut in margarine until mixture resembles coarse crumbs. Add buttermilk, mixing just until moistened.

Turn out on lightly floured surface. Knead gently 10 times. Pat dough into rectangle about 1/2-inch thick. Cut in 4-by-1/2-inch strips with sharp knife. Place on ungreased cookie sheet. Brush tops with egg white. Bake 10 to 12 minutes at 450° until golden brown.

Serve warm or at room temperature.

Makes 2 dozen.

Tips: To freeze cheesestix, wrap securely in foil or place in freezer bag. Seal, label and freeze. To reheat, unwrap and place on ungreased cookie sheet. Bake 6 to 8 minutes in preheated 450° oven until heated through.

15th anniversary chili cook-off Oct. 13

Most 15th anniversaries are celebrated with gifts of crystal. There will be one Oct. 13, however, that will be marked with steam and bowls of hot food.

Anyone who wants to join the party for the National Kidney Foundation's Missouri Chili Cook-Off should come equipped with stewing pot, recipe and seasonings. The competition and taste-testing will be from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. at West Port Plaza, Page and 1270. Entries will be taken until Oct. 8.

More than 100 cooking teams are expected to compete for the top prize of $500 and two airline tickets from St. Louis to California to compete in the International Chili Society's world championship. Cash prizes and trophies will be awarded second and third place teams.

A $100 showmanship award will be awarded a team that excels in a fun type of pageantry, rather than cooking. This includes costumes, booth and overall effect.

American Airlines, Busch Beer, KMOX Radio, Chili Man

Chilli, Coca Cola, Dawn dishwashing liquid, Pepto-Bismol, Pevelly Dairy and 7-Eleven are sponsoring the event.

To register or for more information, call the National Kidney Foundation, 993-4363 or toll-free (800) 727-0240. A $50 entry fee includes a one-year mandatory membership in the International Chili Society.

Entry into the event itself is $1, with donations for tastings to benefit the National Kidney Foundation of Eastern Missouri and Metro-East.

KICK OFF THE FOOTBALL: season with tasty Hot 'n Sassy Buffalo 'Wings'.

Lighten heirloom recipe for your health

Mom's apple pie. Grandma's bread pudding. Aunt Mary's never-fail cake. They are family treasures, recipes passed from generation to generation by word of mouth, on scraps of paper and, when lucky, through a family cookbook.

The problem with many family dessert recipes is they are high in fat and cholesterol.

At first glance, these recipes look useless to individuals concerned with lowering fat and cholesterol in their diets. However, most favorite recipes can be adapted to accommodate health without sacrificing flavor.

When altering recipes to lower fat and cholesterol, try these tips:

*Fat often can be reduced by one-third. For example, if a recipe calls for 6 tablespoons oil, use 4 tablespoons. This works best in quick breads, puddings and sauces.

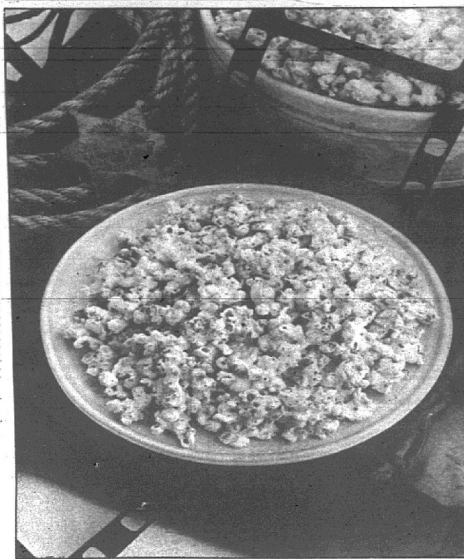

*Evaporated skim milk or whipped nonfat dry milk can be substituted for cream in many recipes.

*Instead of butter, use vegetable oil margarine.

*When a recipe calls for dairy sour cream, use drained nonfat yogurt or low-fat cottage cheese blended until smooth.

*For every 1-ounce square of chocolate in a recipe, substitute 3 tablespoons cocoa mixed with 1 tablespoon oil or margarine.

Americans have made action-packed Western movies and popcorn a winning combination for decades. For some family fun, join these popular partners for an at-home Western film and popcorn fest.

Today movie theaters are diversifying. They offer fresh shakes, hot pizza and tempting sandwiches. While popcorn never can be replaced completely, the at-home viewer can diversify by seasoning popped corn to suit favored flavors.

Microwave popcorn simplifies the entire process. Southwestern Popcorn Crunch calls for the microwave type, if desired, tossed with spicy seasonings. Cinnamon Apple Popcorn Round-Up has more appeal for younger tastes with melted butter, toasted walnuts, cinnamon, sugar and dried apple chunks making it into a mix for riding the trail.

Popcorn, one of America's favorite snack foods, can be served plain or fancy, sweet or savory, depending on preferences. There are countless ways to flavor and serve it.

For 20 exciting popcorn recipes plus a nutrition fact sheet listing selected nutritional values of all Jolly Time Pop Corn products, write for a copy of the "Collection of Homemade Family Recipes from Jolly Time Pop Corn," sending a proof of purchase from a Jolly Time product or 25 cents for postage and handling to Jolly Time Pop Corn.

Cream hearty vegetables to create winning soup

Shelley S. Loring of O'Fallon, Ill., is this week's winner of dinner certificates for the Pasta House Co. for Golden Cream Soup.

This soup will encourage people of any age who dislikes vegetables to eat them anyway. She adds broccoli, chopped very fine, so it blends in easily. Rich and creamy, the soup can be doubled, if desired, and frozen to enjoy on a cool autumn day.

Entries for the Shimmery Gelatin and Pudding Recipe Contest are due Sept. 30. The recipe can make gelatin or pudding, for a salad or dessert, or gelatin or pudding can be used in the recipe.

A single entry to the contest should be sent to Shimmery Gelatin and Pudding Recipe Contest, 1215 Fern Ridge Parkway, Suite 108, St. Louis, Mo. 63141. Winning free dinners would be a welcome treat during October, so be sure to enter that favorite recipe for a favorite vegetable.

Winners on the five Wednesdays of October will be chosen on the basis of taste and eye appeal, as well as originality, although the recipe need not be original. Double-check directions and specific amounts, giving variations that individualize the recipe. If possible, tell where the recipe came from and give specific information about special touches that give it a personal signature. Indicate which Journal newspaper you receive.

Double entries will be considered on the basis of earlier entry or best compliance with rules. Contest winners may enter

Basketball official to talk about role

GRANITE CITY — Coolidge and Grigsby junior high schools will host speaker Ed Hightower at the September parents meeting with the principals.

The meeting will be held from 7 to 8:30 p.m. Thursday, Sept. 27, in the Coolidge Junior High cafeteria.

Hightower's presentation will be "Education As It Relates to Athletics."

Hightower has been principal of Eunice Smith Elementary School, Alton School District 11, for nine years. He fosters parent participation in student learning, outlines classroom goals and objectives for each year, and tells parents what they should expect from the school and what they should contribute. He focuses on an educational program that emphasizes a comprehensive curriculum, the importance of the teacher and the value of every student.

According to a spokesman, Hightower will not accept mediocrity where children and their education are concerned.

Hightower has a long history of playing, coaching and officiating at basketball games. He has officiated at basketball games from junior and senior high varsity to three trips to the Final Four NCAA basketball. For the last eight years he has officiated in the Big Ten, Missouri Valley, Big Eight, and the Metro Basketball conferences. In 1988, he declined a contract to officiate professional basketball.

Hightower's presentation will be the first in a series of programs for parents of junior high students, "Parenting Skills for the '90s," sponsored by the University of Illinois Extension Service, and Coolidge and Grigsby junior high schools. Those who wish more information should call Principal Jim Jeffries, 451-5826; or Principal Ken Spaulding, 931-5544.

The public is invited to attend.

Smoke-free schools urged for Catholics

All Catholic schools and other religious education centers in the Diocese of Springfield should consider becoming smoke-free environments, according to the Rev. James Michaelitz, OSV, diocesan director of education.

Michaelitz issued his strong personal encouragement in an Aug. 15 letter sent to school principals and directors of religious education in the diocese.

The statement does not mean that schools are required to be non-smoking environments but that they are encouraged to consider it.

Michaelitz prefaced his suggestion by pointing out two new state laws that prohibit the use of tobacco on public school property and restrict smoking in all other public places.

While neither law can be interpreted to mean smoking is banned at private schools, "I think we should be listening," the director of education said. "I believe that value of not doing harm to our bodies is a very important value."

State issues bonds for education

Gov. James R. Thompson has announced the state's fourth issuance of Illinois College Savings Bonds to assist parents in planning for their children's college education.

"The program has been tremendously successful since it was initiated three years ago," Thompson said. "Through the College Savings Bond sales, we have helped more than 100,000 people make tax-exempt investment plans to finance college."

Approximately $200 million in bonds will be offered for sale from Oct. 9-12. If the demand for the bonds is as strong as in the past sales, the offering may be raised to $250 million. The bonds will mature from August 1992 to August 2011. Individual bonds will range in price from approximately $1,150 to $4,550 each, depending on the maturity and market conditions at the time of sale, and will pay the holder $5,000 at the time of maturity.

Interest income on the bonds will be exempt from federal and state income taxes, in the manner provided by law.

Money paid at maturity can be used for any purpose, but bonuses may be paid to those individuals applying the bond directly toward higher education costs in Illinois. The bonus paid for each bond will range from approximately $40 to $420, depending on the length of maturity of the bond.

"Excellent college educational opportunities are available within the State of Illinois. This program is designed to assist families in sending their children to any college, though it can be especially attractive for those attending a college in our state," Thompson said.

Up to $25,000 in proceeds will not be considered as an asset in financial aid formulas determining student eligibility for state student financial assistance.

The bonds will be offered through many banks and brokerage houses with offices in Illinois. The managing underwriter for the bond sale will be Shearson Lehman Hutton. Shearson will establish a toll-free number to provide additional information regarding the offering. The state sold $93 million of college bonds in January 1988; $225 in October 1988; and $250 million in November 1989.

KPLR's ratings OK despite Cardinals

Our boys of summer have not been kind this season to KPLR-TV (Channel 11), in St. Louis, described by some as the best baseball town in the world, television viewers became disillusioned with the Cardinals near midsummer.

That meant reduced ratings for Channel 11, which was taking on its most ambitious baseball schedule, televising 78 games — a big jump from the 60 games televised in 1989.

Channel 11 Vice President and Station Manager Dan Neumann declined to discuss actual numbers, but he did confirm "the numbers started to soften in August," apparently when even the most diehard fans decided that the Cardinals were not going to pull off a belated miracle.

However, Neumann insisted that "advertisers are very happy. There have been no major defections (among the advertisers) and I don't anticipate any."

Only time will tell if the slump in ratings will create more difficult selling conditions when the station tries to sell next year's baseball package to advertisers. Next season, Channel 11 begins a new three-year contract with the team.

One positive thing Neumann surely will point out to advertisers is that, for a station televising a cellar-dwelling team, Channel 11 is doing OK. In the National League, Channel 11 ranks behind only the stations carrying the Pittsburgh Pirates and the Cincinnati Reds in ratings in their local market. The Pirates and Reds, not coincidentally, have been "first-place teams most of the season."

The only other "baseball" stations doing better are those carrying the Toronto Blue Jays and the Oakland A's — teams that have been in first place or near the top in the American League divisions.

Obviously, it pays to televise a good team. In previous winning seasons, like 1989, Neumann said games televised by Channel 11 often were No. 1 or No. 2 against prime-time network competition. That means Channel 11 can be an extremely profitable station. No doubt he is hoping a few rookies make a big impact next year on the Cardinals.

As for the station's winter sports menu, there is good news and bad news for St. Louis fans. The good news is the station will televise 32 regular-season Blues games, up from 23 last year. The station has an option to air five more games if things go well, he said.

However, another local franchise will not be getting television exposure. Channel 11 has no commitment to televise any St. Louis Storm indoor soccer games, said Neumann, who was "really disappointed in the numbers" for four Storm games the station televised last season.

Channel 11 also does not plan to televise any St. Louis University basketball games because the Metro Collegiate Conference, of which St. Louis U. is a member, would require the station to buy a package of MCC games that includes many matchups of little local interest. Neumann said, Channel 11 aired 11 regular-season St. Louis U. games last season.

So Channel 11 will not provide much threat to ESPN this winter. On the other hand, ESPN won't have the Blues.

Huge honor for KMOX
KMOX-AM (1120) has been cited by the National Association of Broadcasters as the "Major Market Station of the Year."

KMOX has been an "industry leader for four decades," according to the NAB.

The NAB also recognized KMOX as a leader in the trend of talk radio in the 1980s, and cited the station's continuing efforts, including talk broadcasts involving people in Moscow and Tokyo.

Robert Hyland, general manager of KMOX and KLOU-FM (103.3), and CBS Radio senior vice president, was cited for his "continuing contribution to the radio industry."

Heritage America festival promotes Indian culture

Heritage America, a festival that celebrates American Indian culture of the past, present and future, will be held at Cahokia Mounds State Historic Site Friday, Sept. 28 through Sunday, Sept. 30.

Native Americans from throughout the United States will gather at Cahokia Mounds to perform and demonstrate traditional dancing, music, crafts, storytelling and cooking. They will also set up a trading area.

The event is being promoted as the first time a major celebration will encompass both prehistoric and contemporary Indian cultures at a prehistoric Indian site. People will be able to see history through the many activities, performances and demonstrations.

Choctaw Indians from Memphis, Tenn., will demonstrate making baskets and blowguns, cooking, and the stick ball game. Other Indians will demonstrate historic Indian crafts such as making totem poles and clothing, sand painting, and silver working. Hands-on activities will include making god's eyes, bead necklaces, and featherworking. There will also be a lacrosse game.

Cahokia Mounds volunteers will demonstrate the prehistoric Indian crafts of pottery making, flintknapping, shell and bone working, fingerweaving, mat making, copper tooling, and net making. Activities will include the chunky stone game, atlatl spear throwing, and hands-on making of shell spoons, clay chunkeys, and cattail leaf dolls.

Shuttle buses will transport visitors from special event parking to the dance and trading areas, Monks Mound, Woodhenge, and the Interpretive Center. The activities will be set up along the Plaza trail from the Interpretive Center to the Falcon picnic area, where a new dance circle has been erected for the intertribal dancing which will occur throughout the three-day event.

The program starts Friday, Sept. 28, at 1 p.m. at the Interpretive Center with a lecture, "Handing Down a Culture," by Dr. Carter Revard. Movies will be shown from 3 to 4:30 p.m. Intertribal dancing will occur from 6:30 to 11 p.m. at the Falcon dance arbor.

On Saturday, Sept. 29, the opening grand procession will be at 1 p.m. at the Falcon dance circle. Traditional dance and music will continue there from 2 to 11 p.m., with demonstrations, activities, storytelling and more dancing in the Plaza from 2 to 6 p.m.

On Sunday, Sept. 30, demonstrations, activities, storytelling and special dance performances will be held in the Plaza area from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m., and traditional intertribal dance and music will be held in the Falcon dance circle from 1 to 4 p.m.

Heritage America is free and open to the public, and is cosponsored by the Illinois Arts Council (Ethnic Folk Arts), Evelyn Voelker, the American Indian Society of St. Louis, the Madison County Arts Council, and the Cahokia Mounds Museum

Society, in cooperation with the Illinois Historic Preservation Agency (which administers Cahokia Mounds), and Cahokia Mounds State Historic Site.

For more information, call (618) 346-5160. Cahokia Mounds is located eight miles from downtown St. Louis, near Collinsville, off Interstates 55, 70 and 255, and Illinois Route 111, on Collinsville Road.
